

To print a sermon from our web site

First, open your web browser to <http://www.wbts.org> and then click on the “Sermons” link on the side of the page ...

... God? Do you pray for God's Spirit to fill you? Many people love the one-lined prayer in the simple gospel song "Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me; melt me mold me, fill me use me." Listen to all that we ask the Spirit for today: to come into us, not through a hole in the ceiling, but like a dove sent from Heaven; we ask the Spirit to come into us and dwell in a fresh new way. When we sing "melt me" its because God's frozen chosen have gotten too frosted into our old habits and predictable ways! The Spirit has melting powers! On the other hand, sometimes we also get brittle, like dried out Playdough! Yet the Spirit can give our souls new texture, like trading in the can that's filled with the dry and crystallized stuff, and getting a new can of moldable dough! The words, "fill me" imagines our life to be like a vessel, one that has become dusty from not coming back to God, the source of drenching life and love. The Spirit can pour water into the founts of our souls again! And then when we invite God to use us, the Spirit gives us the strength and courage to do what is required in the face of adversity, sorrow, or weakness. Thank you Jesus for leaving us your Spirit! Is there nothing God's Spirit cannot do? "No," the Bible says, "for with God nothing shall be
